

As part of the drought mitigation strategy, Brisbane City Council extended the Brisbane Caboolture Aquifer Alliance (BCAA) to include the upgrade of a further water treatment plant at Enoggera. The upgraded plant will have a capacity of 6ML/d. The project will modernise and automate the treatment process while maintaining the heritage values of the site which contains among the oldest water treatment facilities in Brisbane.